

Teach at the Speed of Learning

HOME/CONNECT DAILY ROUTINES BIG & HEAVY TASKS
MORE...

Great tasks you can do in 10-15 minutes every day...click the image and they're yours.

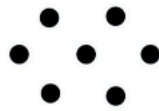

K-2 Estimation Tasks

How many marshmallows will balance with Zurg?

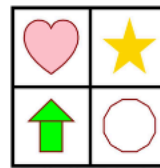

Daily photo/video estimation tasks for K-2, inspired by Andrew Stadel, built with support from Kristian Quiocho, Jamie Duncan and Joe Schwartz

K-12 Dot Patterns

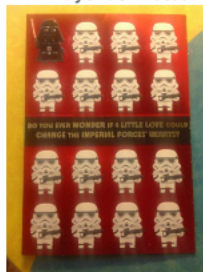

35 slides of adjustable dot patterns to use with Number Talks

Which One Doesn't Belong?

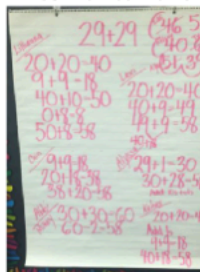

Daily K-12 tasks assembled by Mary Bourassa at <http://wodb.ca/index.html>

#ArrayChat Photos

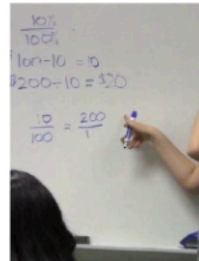

95 photos of arrays and partial arrays to use as an alternative to a Number Talk.

K-5th Number Talks

More days of number talks and number strings than you need, but gets you started

6th-12th Number Talks

Got kids with gaps in their learning? Lots of slides for secondary number talks/strings

Estimation 180

The most awesome bank of hundreds of estimation tasks for 3rd to 12th graders by Andrew Stadel at www.estimated180.com

Visual Patterns

Hundreds of daily visual patterns to strengthen connections between algebraic representations by Fawn Nguyen

Would You Rather...

Install and maintain an electric hand dryer or a paper towel dispenser in a public washroom!

John Stevens' spin on the classic 'would you rather' supporting constructing viable arguments and critiquing reasoning