

LMAAC 2019-2020

Dance Audition Process

There are two audition groups for dance at LA MESA ARTS ACADEMY: Conservatory and Company. Conservatory dance is considered the intermediate level and Company dance is the advanced dance class. Classes are for students who will be in grade 7 and 8 next school year. We are looking for dancers with great technical skill and ability, but more importantly dancers who put forth effort and will contribute to the group in a positive way.

Additional class information:

Students who become members of Conservatory or Company Dance are asked to purchase*:

- Tan jazz shoes- $26
- Footless dance tights- $6
- Black tank leotard- $14
- Dance t-shirt- $10

*If financial assistance is needed, please let the teacher know.

Auditioning students should prepare as follows:

- Complete the Audition and Specialty Course Application and turn it in at your audition.
- Remember to attach a current photo of yourself to the application.
- Wear clothes that allow for movement.
- Bring a water bottle.

A choreography video will be sent via Jupiter Grades. If you are not a current LMAAC student, please provide your email address below for this purpose.

Email address only for students new to LMAAC
