ASB, Yearbook, and Media are advanced-level classes that vary greatly from the traditional classroom setting. These classes move at a quick pace and require students to be role models with strong academics and exemplary character. Students must be self-motivated, interested in developing leadership skills, good at following directions, responsible, hard-working, and comfortable with public speaking.

Requirements:

1. Academics: Students must have good citizenship and no F's or U's on any report card. You may not have been on the LOP list. If chosen for a leadership class, the student must maintain an overall GPA of 3.0, no D's or F's for grades, no N's or U's for citizenship, and not be on the Lost Privileges list (LOP) or the student will be removed from the class.

2. Recommendations: Prospective students must have a recommendation form submitted from their previous or current teacher.

Please list all extracurricular and/or school activities you are currently involved in ie. sports, clubs, theater etc.
